Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 10-15 and 17-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ikeno et al., U.S. Patent # 4,990,560. See the abstract, column 2, line 23 to column 3, line 10 through column 3, line 10, column 5, lines 18-28, and Example 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ikeno et al., U.S. Patent # 4,990,560. Ikeno appears only to contemplate a non-part composition but it is the Examiner's contention that a two-part composition is always obvious where a curable one-part composition is described and that composition may be susceptible to premature curing as is known to occur with hydrosilylation-curable compositions under ambient conditions.

Applicant is advised that there are any number of disclosures that render unpatentable at least several of the claims but, insofar as Ikeno so completely addresses every limitation of the instant invention, no analysis of the relevance of some of the other references, which include Ozai et al., U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2003/0220448, Shimizu et al., U.S. Patent # 4,783,289, and Burkus et al., U.S. Patent # 5,998,516, will be provided at the present time.
